

I would like to discourage any legislation that would override the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. Since I have signed the "do not call" list the number of unsolicited "sales" calls has reduced from 3-4 per day to zero. This law has been very effective and should remain as written. Thank you for the chance to voice my opinion.

Darlene Ricci of Fort Wayne IN